

*Vibra*LITE can help IN A NOISY COCKPIT:

So often the noise in a cockpit deems an audible alarm useless. “*Vibra*LITE” Vibration Alarm Watches with Auto Repeat Countdown timer makes dealing with time critical actions in busy and noisy cockpits easier.

The Vibrations on your wrist can remind you to switch fuel tanks, time approaches or hold, initiate a procedure turn or close flight plans.

Chronograph counts up to 23 hours, 59 minutes and 59.99 seconds.

“*Vibra*LITE 3” has two time zones. “*Vibra*LITE 8” has 3 time zones.

Set the Countdown Timer for any amount of time (minutes, seconds, hours) and the Vibrations on the wrist will alert you when the time is up. Both “*Vibra*LITE 3” and “*Vibra*LITE 8” have the feature of an auto repeat countdown timer. When the countdown reaches zero, it will alert you and start counting down again automatically for that preset time.

The Countdown Timer on “*Vibra*LITE 3” and on “*Vibra*LITE 8” will provide you with a short one-second reminder at 10 minutes and again at 5 minutes before zero. On “*Vibra*LITE 8” you can set this reminder feature to ON or OFF as you prefer.

“*Vibra*LITE 8” has a quick reset for Countdown Time. When an approach has to be aborted and time is of the essence, countdown can be reset with one button. Simply press the start button when ready for next timed approach.

On “*Vibra*LITE 3” you can preset 2 alarms for daily reminders. (Examples: Medication times, Appointments, Tasks). The alarm(s) will alert you each day at your preset times. On “*Vibra*LITE 8” you can preset up to 8 alarms for daily variable reminders. These alarms can be preset for any reminders during the day that you may need. (i.e. wake up, snooze, appointments etc.)

“*Vibra*LITE” is the perfect travel alarm. Set the first alarm for the time to wake up and one or more alarms for “snooze”. With the vibration mode set, you will not disturb others.

Use the hourly alert feature if you want a quick reminder that is a short -1 second Vibration that will repeat every hour on the hour.
